$600,000

Introducing Phase 2 of The Gardens in Rosedale, where you can build your new home in a classic, planned country subdivision amidst towering trees and majestic mountain views. With wide boulevards and large lots (many suited for walk-out basements), the Gardens has already become the most desired address in the area. All services, including sewer. Come take a drive and see what the future holds. And check out the beautiful park concept on the associated documents.
